Dear Senator Bradley,

I write to express my concern about Kim Dae Jung in South Korea. You may be in the best position to know how best to support his cause, and I would appreciate any information you can share on how the US can help protect his rights, and how we can take positive steps NOT to support the present government in South Korea.

I am especially opposed to any military aid being given to them.

Thank you for considering this issue in the light of world security based on respect for humans.

Sincerely

Terri MacGregor
